Greensboro' is the Field.

[Breetal correspondence of the Dispatch.]

GLEENSBORO', N. C., April 28.

Greensboro' is the Guilford courthouse of to-day, but the old courthouse—the place near which the battle was fought in 1781 between the forces of Green and Cornwallis—is about five miles from here.

This county was forced in 1771 and

This county was formed in 1771, and be deed-books and other records dating back to that year are in the courthouse here and in good condition. The name Scales appears several times in the old-ent book—ancestors of General Scales, the present popular and beloved Gov-ernor of North Carolina, who last year defeated Dr. York, who was supported

The principal products of the county are corn, wheat, oats, rye, barley, to-bacco, and cotton. Of the latter the yield last season exceeded 300 bales. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain, and there are large fields heat, which was promising, as the here has not suffered from the severe winter as has the crop of Vir-

The farmers are giving much atten tion to tobacco. Four years ago but little of it was cultivated. In 1883 a good deal was raised, which netted them handsome profits. Last year there was an increase of a hundred per cent., and this year, it is said, four times as much of it will be raised, as the soil in certain portions of the county is well adapted to tobacco-culture. A farmer was in town to-day, said that in his neighborhood not less than fifty tobacco-houses had recently been built. He also said that last year was his first experience with tobacco, and that the crop raised by him when sold averaged him $140 per acre. The largest average per acre, I am told, was $200. The ers of the tobacco are a beautiful golden and a mahogany. In quality much of the crop will compare favora-bly with that of Henry county, Vir-

Four large nurseries, embracing all varieties of fruit, are located near Greensboro'. Mr. John Van Lindley is the owner of the largest of them. The sales amount yearly to $75,000 or $100,000. The other nurseries are owned by Lindley Brother, L. G. Anthony, and Ward & Young. The shipments North from here of cherries, strawberries, and peaches are large. COTTON-MILLS.

At Jamestown is the cotton-mill of the Oakdale Manufacturing Company. It has 5,000 spindles, employs a large number of hands, and has the capacity of turning out 1,000 pounds of cotton-warps daily. Near Liberty is another— the Mount Pleasant Manufacturing Company-with 2,000 spindles, 40 looms. It makes 1,500 yards of cotton-cloth Per day.

There are located in the county twelve tan-yards, large and small, and a number of grist-mills, and some of the flour ground is of a superior quality. PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The public-school system is said to be good, and to compare favorably with that of any section of the State, and much benefit, it is expected, will be derived from it in the future. The schools are well governed and provided for. There are ten townships in the county, and there are four or more schools in each. Besides these schools there are a number of other institutions of learning in the county, among them the Greensboro' Female College, which has 100 young lady boarders; the Friends' School, 100 pupils; High Point Insti-

The drummers have found its hotels good, and give the place a fine name (as they do Charlotte), and it | South Boston. deserves all they have said of it. Its merchants are enterprising, its homes pleasant-looking, and its girls pretty. It is 189 miles from Richmond, 81 from Raleigh, 28 from Salem and Winston.

RAILWAY CENTRE. Greensboro' justly claims to be the railroad centre of the State. It is the focal point in the great Richmond and Danville system—the present terminus of the Cape-Fear and Yadkin-Valley railroad, which is being pushed to Mt. Airy, on the northwest. It is to be extended from Fayetteville to Wilmingon, the latter city agreeing to subscribe 250,000 towards its construction. The distance is only thirty miles. This puts Cincinnati and the great West one hundred miles nearer Greensboro'. The benefit is obvious. The railroad shops of the Cape-Fear and Yadkin-Valley are to be located here. Greensboro' is trict, of which it is the leading town, is regarded as the political pivot.

As this district goes so goes the State. It has been represented in Congress many years by General Scales, now Governor of the State. His sucham, who is already making a reputation. He is young, active, popular, and is said to be the most eloquent in the State. His father was a Methodist preacher—a man of great power and eloquence in the pulpit. The young men in his district swear by him. He is now a Washington, and thirty days prior to the beginning of the races. The result was as follows: Congress. He stays on the principle that he was elected to serve his constituents, and he is there for that purpose. In his district there are five presidential post-offices and a number ber of candidates for the Greensboro' office. The present incumbent has two years, and some doubt is ex-pressed about his removal. A LIVELY FIGHT. The most interesting political event is the fight over the attorneyship for the Western district of North Carolina. The principal contestants are Colonel Jones, of Charlotte, and Colo-nel John N. Staples, of Greensboro'. The latter is a kinsman of our Virginia The latter is a kinsman of our Virginia lawyer who appeared recently before the United States Supreme Court in the Parsons case. He was a State elector, and made over sixty set speeches in the campaign. He is a good lawyer and an impressive speaker, and is said to possess one of the clearest heads in the profession. The fight over the appointment has been in progress for six weeks or more. His causes has been ably championed by gress for six weeks or more. His cause has been ably championed by Congressman Reid, who has been successful in having the appointment hung up." Senator Vance is opposing him. Senator Ransom, who is said to be in the confidence of the President, is neutral. It is Representative against Senator, and the fight is watched in the State with much interest to see ipal and growing industries of the ace is the ma of tobacco. A few years ago there was not a leaf sold or manufactured here, and now there are four tobacco-facto-ries, each doing an extensive and paying business. J. L. King & Co. have a business. J. L. King & Co. have a large four-story factory, and employ seventy-five hands, and manufacture fully half a million pounds yearly. Mr. John Barker has just completed a new factory, which will be in operation in a short while. W. A. Fields & Co. employ fifty hands, and W. S. Carroll & Co. are pushing things. There are also three splendid tobacco-warehouses—in The Star." Houston & Lyon,

It is expected that in a short time there will be wo other factories built by Vernoon & Shelton and J. A. Porter respectively. The tebacco is shipped to Richmond, Baltimore, New York, Danville, and

The Sergeant Manufacturing Company and G. T. Glascock manufacture agricultural implements, stoves, and little turbine water-wheels, &c. Sash and blinds are made here in great quantities by Mendenhall & Co., Jarrett & Clifton, d William Love. There are two spoke- and handle-factories carried on Colonel Thomas McMahon and C. E. Shober respectively, and two sawmills that do a good business, and which are owned by McNairy & Co. and William Love. There are nine churches-five white and four colored-representing the Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, and Catholic denominations.

Of public schools there are twowhite and one colored. The number of scholars in attendance at the white is 260, and at the colored about 100.

A UNITED STATES BUILDING. The Federal Government has approoristed $50,000 to erect here a building for court, post-office, &c. A Mr. Wool-cott, of Boston, is the contractor, and work was commenced several days ago and the foundation is about completed. The building is to be built of brick two stories high, 44 by 70 feet.

There is a proposition to organize a joint stock company to supply the town with water. It will be submitted to the people to vote on in May. At present the water-supply is from wells, &c. The Friends have a large settlement near the old courthouse in the county.

Among the residences of the town are those of Judge Settle, United States judge in Florida; Judge Gilmer, of the Circuit Court; Judge Dick, of the United States Court for this district; and ex-Judges Schenk and Dilliard. Governor Scales's is one of the best in town. It is in the villa style, is cool and roomy, and stands a good way back from the street, upon a spacious lot, in and about which there are a number of trees of native growth.

Richmond sells about one half of the goods bought in this market. In groceries the sales are largest. G. G. Miner, of Owens & Minor, druggists; Henry F. Phillips, of E. B. Taylor, crockery; A. L. Owen, of A. Oppenhimer, clothing, have been here, and are on the road. They represent Richmond houses, and say trade is all right. ARAMINTA.

RICHMOND, VA., April 28, 1885. To the Editor of the Dispatch :

To settle a dispute, will you please state in your next issue the population of Cleveland, Ohio, according to the latest school census. The latest I can learn is the census of 1880, which gives 160,142. Yours truly, CONSTANT READER.

The school population of Cleveland in 1883 was 56,411. These figures would indicate an aggregate population of over 200,000.
